ALL SET FOR LONGEST
ANTIQUES, COLLECTIBLES AND GARAGE SALE
THIS SATURDAY, AUGUST 8

212 Miles of Sales Along The Sauk Heritage Route (US-12) –
Coldwater, Quincy, Bronson, Jonesville and Allen to Participate

Final plans are in place for what is slated to be the largest antiques, collectibles and garage sale in Michigan on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday August 7, 8 and 9, 2009. The sites for these sales will be all along US-12 and especially in the Branch County communities of Coldwater, Bronson and Quincy.

Downtown Coldwater sidewalks will be filled with over 60 vendors in front of the storefronts on Saturday, August 8, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. They will be featuring antiques, primitives, collectibles, arts and craft items as well as a great selection of garage sale items.

In Allen just five miles from Quincy, the Allen Antique Barn will host over 25 antique vendors on their lawn as well as additional vendors at the Allen Antique Mall.

In addition, there are over 100 residences hosting garage sales throughout Bronson, Quincy, Allen, Jonesville and Coldwater on Friday, Saturday and Sunday August 7, 8 and 9.

The Sauk Heritage Route is more commonly known as US-12 and consists of 212 miles from Detroit to New Buffalo, Michigan. This route has been and continues to be a vital transportation route for the State of Michigan.

Don't miss this August promotion and be a part of the largest antiques, collectibles and treasurers sale...either by selling or there to purchase what are sure to be some great buys.

If you have any questions regarding this promotion, contact Debra Yee at the Branch County Tourism Council at (517) 278-0241 or Barb Rosene at the Coldwater DDA at (517) 279-6902.
